What We Learned in Writing Science and Nature

What a Adjective semester it's been! Once we found our classroom hiding on the other side of campus, we Verb - Past Tense in our desks, took out our Noun journals and Noun - Plural, and dove into the exciting world of writing science and Noun.

For our first assignment, Professor Verb - Past Tense introduced us to Terry Tempest Williams' memoir: Noun: An Unnatural History of Family and Place. We enjoyed reading and discussing this book, which was filled with bird-themed chapters: Verb - Present Tense Owls, Proper Noun Egrets, and Proper Noun Flamingos.
