Letter to Professor

Dear Professor _____,

I am writing to you to apologize for my lack of participation in your _____ Noun class. This semester has been especially difficult for me, as I have been dealing with _____ (symptom) whenever I attempt to _____ (normal activity). It all started this summer when I was _____ (activity). The visit to the hospital after led to a diagnosis of _____ (medical condition), and I was prescribed _____ (medication). Little did I know the medicine would have serious side-effects, such as _____ and _____ (side effects), which further limit my ability to complete your work.

Sadly, this is not my only bodily injury; I have also been dealing with pains in my _____ (body part) which lead me to _____ (verb) and spend _____ (time) daily trying to _____ (verb) and recover.

I have also been dealing with my _____'s (other family member) _____ (problem), which makes me spend an hour every day _____ (form of communication) with them. It is an extremely _____ (adjective) time.

Regretfully, the election also led me to neglect your work. With the election of a(n) _____ (noun) to the Presidency, I have spent ____ (amount of time) on thinking about _____ (philosophical concept). I have also worried about _____ (policy issue), which will impact me by _____ (verb) my ability to _____ (verb). I have also spent _____ (amount of time) crying because of his _____ (characteristic of Trump), and the nightmares I have experienced due to his _____ (noun).

My hope is that you know how much I _____ (verb) your class. I know I have only attended _____ (number) of classes, and turned in _____ (number) of assignments, but every time I _____ (normal daily activity), I can't stop thinking of _____ (topic from class). Every time I think of your class, a _____ (type of feeling) washes over me. I am so invested in your class, that I even had a nightmare, where _____ (individual studied in class) attempted to _____ (verb) me, which led to _____ (number of visits) to SHACS for counseling, consuming _____ (amount of time) and making me feel _____ (feeling).

I would love to come by your office sometime to discuss raising my grade from _____ (current grade) to _____ (grade wanted). I'm extremely busy this week, with _____ (number) of appointment to hospital, a skypeing session with _____ (local government representative), meeting with _____ (Grinnell Administrative person) to enact changes in _____ (Some policy BS), and spending _____ (time) reflecting about _____ (class concept) while _____ (normal daily activity), but I am sure we can find a time.

With _____ (class concept) in mind,

_____ (your name)
