Lipsrecon

A leprechaun (Irish: leipreachn) is a type of fairy in Irish folklore. They are usually depicted as _____ Adjective bearded _____ Noun - Plural, wearing a coat and hat, who partake in mischief. They are solitary creatures who spend their _____ Verb - Base Form making and mending shoes and have a hidden pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. If captured by a _____ Noun, they often grant three wishes in _____ Adverb for their freedom. Like other Irish fairies, leprechauns may be derived from the Tuatha D Danann.[1] Leprechaun-like creatures rarely appear in Irish mythology and only became prominent in later folklore.
