MP&F Elevator Speech

1.	Noun
2.	Noun
3.	Noun
4.	Verb - Base Form

MP&F Elevator Speech

We're a full-s	service PR firm,	and that means v	we do a lot of	different thing	gs - [Noun],	[N	[oun], Noun	_]. And we [Verb - Base Form] digital st	rategies into ev	verything v	ve do. Dig	ital is w	here our industry is he	eaded, and we're	at the front edge	of that move	ement.
We're involve	ed in a lot of [ac	ljective] issues. F	For example,	we worked on	workers' co	omp refori	n and th	ıe campaign to	defeat [noun]. V	Ve also led the ef	fort to allow	[noun] sales in	grocery st	ores.
We have a [n	oun] departmen	t that does a lot o	of website des	sign work and	[verb] a va	riety of co	llateral	materials -
brochures, po	osters, annual re	ports.
Our [noun] d	ivision, mp&f/d	, helps our client	s think throug	gh [adjective] s	strategy and	d how the	y are usi	ng their digital platfor	rms, including v	vebsites, email m	arketing and	intranets, to [v	verb] their 1	nessages.
We help peop	ple and compan	es [verb] their ste	ories, whatev	er they are, to	their audie	nces. We	nelp the	m figure out what their	r story is, who t	he right audience	e is, and the b	est way to tell	their story	to comi	nunicate	e their message, [adj	jective] or [adje	ctive].
Simply put, v	we help people [verb].

That might be external communications, like to the media or directly to [plural noun]. We might write a [noun] for a CEO, or help someone with a presentation they are giving to a trade group.

Or it might be internal communications ... [plural noun] to employees, or [plural noun] for a companywide meeting to explain a big change or new policies.

We represent a lot of different kinds of clients, from large [plural noun] to small [plural noun] and sometimes individuals.

Our biggest client is [proper noun]. That's a U.S. Department of Labor job training program for economically disadvantaged young [plural noun]. We do all of their national marketing and recruitment campaigns and work closely with the national and regional office staffs and produce tons of [plural noun]. We produce [plural noun] for them; we're even doing some [plural noun] on Spotify and Pandora.

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.