Name

There was a Adjective snowman. He was always Adjective. His name was name. One day he was Verb - Present ends in ING, when he saw a Animal. The Adjective animal liked to verb. He fed the animal pieces of food. The animal liked him and decided to follow him. The snowman named it pet name. They were about to enter the candy cane forest when the bad nouns came! They were going to melt him! So he ran, and ran! Then he tripped on a Noun! The bad guys were gaining on him! He thought he was going to die! But then the "bad" guys helped him up and helped him go back home. He found his mom and dad and they gave him some food. Then he heard a sound, click, clack, click, clack. It was Santa in his vehicle! He rushed outside to see him! "exclamation" said Santa, the gasped and Santa gave the snowman the toy he wanted.
