

A Science Christmas

1. Location
2. Adjective
3. Verb - Base Form
4. Adjective - Feeling
5. Location - At Fhi
6. Number
7. Member Of The Ac Department
8. Animal
9. Year In The Past
10. Name Of Someone In The Room
11. Emotion
12. Noun
13. Noun
14. Noun - Plural
15. Adjective - Weather
16. Your Favourite Dead Scientist
17. Equipment You Use-D- In The Lab
18. Your Favourite Chemical Substance

A Science Christmas

This Christmas, a lot of scientists will spend their vacation at _____ Location again. This will, however, have a _____ Adjective effect on society. Many experiments are likely to _____ Verb - Base Form, causing disastrous effects.

Judging from our experiences last year, scientists will get very _____ Adjective - feeling when left unattended in late December. Many really miss the _____ Location - at FHI !

For example, _____ Number years ago, _____ Member of the AC department blew up his neighbours _____ Animal in an attack of holiday boredom. At a new years' party in _____ Year in the past, _____ Name of someone in the room was found creating her own _____ emotion potion using _____ Noun, _____ Noun, and _____ Noun - Plural.

One especially _____ Adjective - weather winter, the famous _____ Your favourite dead scientist was killed in a tragic accident involving _____ equipment you use-d- in the lab and _____ your favourite chemical substance.

So please, keep an eye on any scientists you will see during your Christmas vacation!