The Robbery

We were about to enter the _____, we prepared the guns and the getaway van at the back of the building . I put on my mask and stand by the door.

Max (the heist leader) breaches the door and all 5 of us run in shouting and screaming and everyone gets on the ground. As we set up the drill to get into the vault, the police turn up and we un-load our guns on them. About 25 policemen stand in front of us and slowly move towards us, one of them run at us and tackle David. I jump into him and kick him into the ground and shoot him, I am wide open in front of the SWAT. I dive back and turn the corner to shoot them from another angle, David comes with me. I lob a flash into the mob of men in blue, and then I sprint in and shoot the lot of them which gives us time. We get into the CCTV room, and police are coming in from all sides. Max has the shield so he stayed next to the drill and we all went to the roof to hold off.

"WE'RE ALMOST THERE; JUST HOLD OFF ABOUT 5 MORE MINUTES!" David bellowed.

The vault door bursts open and we rush in there to grab the millions of pounds. As we carry it out to the van, loud shots follow behind us. "WE LOST TOM!" I yelled. I sprinted back to get Tom's and run back to the van, we drive away and lose the cops. "Looks like we're comin' home rich tonight!" Max explained.
