Chill Out

$It \ was \ a \underline{\hspace{1cm}} Adjective \underline{\hspace{1cm}} day \ and \ I \ found \ my \ servant \underline{\hspace{1cm}} \underline{\hspace{1cm}} Verb - \underline{\hspace{1cm}} Present \ ends \ in \ ING \underline{\hspace{1cm}} in \ her \ warm \underline{\hspace{1cm}} \underline{\hspace{1cm}} \underline{\hspace{1cm}} Noun \underline{\hspace{1cm}} . \ I$ took all her blankets off her Repeat Last Noun and Verb - Past Tense them in the cold snow. After about hour(s), I put them on her Repeat Last Noun so she could freeze. I thought this plan was because I really wanted to make my servantverb - Base Form I think all my plans work because I am evil. But there was a problem with this plan. During the Repeat Last Number hour(s), my servant got up and went to hide where I could not find her. She must have know something bad was going to happen. After about minute(s) of looking, I found her verb - Base Form in the noun I quietly grabbed my shrink ray and zapped her until she was inch(es) tall. Then I picked her up and to her to her and placed her there. This time, I knew my plan would work since I was going to tie her down to her Repeat Last Noun . I tied her down and grabbed the blanket and verb - Past Tense it on her. She woke up after about minute(s) and started screaming her head off since she could not move and was freezing. That there marks down another day of making my servant live a terrible life.
