"Severus . . . Exclamation . . ."

Snape raised his Part of Body and pointed it directly at Dumbledore.

"Exclamation Exclamation!"

A jet of Color light shot from the end of Snape's Part of Body and hit Dumbledore squarely in the chest. Harry's scream of horror never left him; silent and unmoving, he was forced to Verb - Base Form as Dumbledore was Verb - Past Tense into the air. For a split second, he seemed to hang suspended beneath the shining Noun, and then he fell Adverb backward, like a great Adjective Noun, over the battlements and out of sight.
