It All Started with a Phonecall

One week back in 2015 a bunch of Jewish educators each received a phonecall from one Lesley Litman. There was a excited voice on the other end of the line exclaiming "Do I have a for you!" She went on to explain in detail all about the HUC EMA programme for Jewish We would be studying online together as a group and meet in beautiful locales such as Cincinnati, Los Angeles New York and Proper Noun! We would also have the opportunity to travel to the land of Israel. She forgot to mention in her phone call that we would all need working, and the ability to notice, wonder and appreciate continually for the next two years. It sounded like a opportunity to learn and grow in our fields and so we signed up for the week introductory course with Rabbi Joseph and Dr. Levine. It was so that many of us went on to apply to the program. In order to be accepted we were, we needed to find our old, invite 3 willing people to write us a letter of recommendation and finally we crafted an essay. We each received an acceptance letter and an invitation to attend orientation in Cincinnati. The next thing we knew, we were all back together in New York for our first intensive seminar! We studied texts in, and learned about Modern Jewish Noun - Plural. We learned to study in Chevruta and our soon to be Cohort 5 motto: "I don't give a Rat's Ass" was born. Our dorms were, the food in NYC was and we had many chances to bond as a group over wine and Online courses kept us connected and our clinical faculty mentors acted as cheerleaders, therapists and between our seminars in Los Angeles and New York. Before we knew it, we were in Israel together for 12 days, studying, touring and laughing for the entire time. Here we are, together one more time, our capstone, essays and deliberations are all behind us and we are ready to celebrate our educational journey together.
