A Quadtastic Spring Day

I woke up in the morning as any other usual day. As I was stretching, he could smell the dandelions, lilies, and orchards. After finishing my normal morning routine, he exited his Noun and went out to the Noun. It was beautiful sight. It was thrilling just as the Adjective FIFA World Cup. It felt like that the flowers Verb - Past Tense as I went by and that every flower had a Noun. The feeling was intense and I knew that something new has happened but I don't know what. As I was walking down the streets of the square, I saw a beautiful Noun for adoption. She was the right match. So I went into the pet shop it was in and I saw her name in a Noun. Her name was Elizabeth. I asked the clerk that I wanted to adopt Elizabeth and paid the money. Once Elizabeth was under my care, we started walking to the square. While walking, I saw a Noun workout session and I went to try it. It was wonderful with my companion on my side. After the workout, two tourists needed help with directions so I assisted since I was Adjective. In favor, they gave me a large gummy bear that I Verb - Past Tense and shared it with Elizabeth. Now, after all this time, I know what happened. Spring!!!
