A Wonderful Year for Ms. Dranove's 4th Grade Class

What a _____ 4th grade experience we have had! We started off this _____ year with a PokeMensch theme that we all _____. Do you remember entering school on the first day and taking a picture with Pikachu? That was _____!! Ms. Dranove _____ began teaching us _____ and _____ skills that every 4th grader needs to know. We started _____ PBL studies and had a fun time learning all about water and the U.S. regions. One of the _____ memories from 4th grade was our class trip to Raleigh. We all woke up early to head to school on that _____, _____ morning. We had a _____ delay when the CJDS bus wasn't working but we soon got on our way. 2.5 hours later we were in Raleigh learning all about our state capital and visiting a couple _____ museums. We even had time to visit Old Salem, a historic _____! We had a lot of fun _____ at the hotel. We played rock-paper-scissor to decide who got to sleep in each _____, but poor Ms. Dranove had to sleep on the old pull-out _____. Thank you Ms. Dranove! Now we are ending the year _____ to how to be strong writers. We have worked very _____ on our writing skills while reading The Secret Garden and other _____. And we even wrote a persuasive research paper. We can't wait to share our ideas with our _____ when we give our oral presentations. What a _____ and _____ 4th grade year!

On a more serious note:

Ms.

Dranove, thank you for being the best 4th grade teacher any students could ask for. You are kind, smart, fun, caring and make us look forward to coming to school each day. We will miss you, but look forward to seeing you in the fall.

With love,

Your CJDS Fourth Graders
