Unexpected School Day

Disclaimer: During this story, I am not in any way condoning relationships with/between minors. This is a work of fiction and anyone who thinks otherwise is crazy.

The day started like any other day. I woke up, had a _____ Verb - Base Form and got ready for school. The _____ Noun was late to pick me up.

When I got to school, about _____ Number people were there. Everyone was talking about _____ Part of Body which I didn't know much about. I found my friend and she was going to tell me what was going on. Apparently the school was starting a physical sex education class which was _____ Adjective. I asked my friend "What does physical mean?" And she thought of what it could mean. "Maybe, like, physical sex?" "I hope not. That would be _____ Adjective." Said I.

When class started, the teacher came in. He/She was my favourite teacher; named Mr/Mrs/Miss _____ Teacher _____ Last Name. The other 5 teachers that taught our year followed behind. Mr/Mrs/Miss _____ Teacher Last Name started speaking. He/She said "Today, we are going to start physical sex ed. This means you will be stripping down to your _____ Article of clothing." I looked around and everyone started _____ Verb - Present ends in ING. I looked at my crush (_____ First Name of a Person), and he/she was _____ Adjective. Mr/Mrs/Miss _____ Teacher _____ Last Name moved over to the three large barrels of student names; one had boys in it and another had girls. The girls name picked was First Name of a Person but she was away so next it was my best friend First Name of a Person. The boy picked was First Name of a Person. The last barrel was filled with different positions.

They got the Sex Position.

The teachers played a video teaching everyone how to do this. It was quite Adjective to watch as everyone in the year was trying to learn without looking as if they were Verb - Present ends in ING it. After the rest of the students were paired up, the lesson started. After attempting the position with First Name of a Person, we successfully did it. When the pairs were switched, I was put with Mr/Mrs/Miss Teacher Last Name. He/She said to me "If you do well, I will give you a/an School Grade". This made be happy as I always wanted to get that. I tried my best; the teacher put her/his Part of Body near my Part of Body. This made be Emotion. I did alright but I wasn't great.

At the end of the lesson, all the kids were really Adjective, including me. When I went home, I got out my Noun and Verb - Past Tense my friend. She said the lesson was Adjective and I agreed.
From there, I got on my Noun, put some porn on and Verb - Past Tense some more.
