Syria

In the middle east I tall, build from concret trying to withstand all of the Bombs and bullets are flying around always, I just pray that I will not become a victim children running through me looking for safety and someplace to hide. Bullets flying inside of me, I feel the hatred as many people are slain. I am falling apart through all this war slowly being torn down by the bullets and bombs.
My Noun Plural getting Verb Past Tense with blood as it drips down my walls. All I see around me are bombs being dropped on my day ones, the building that have been with me through it all are now going down. It is scary to see everyone around with a gun just out here tor fun. I am located in Damascus, the capital of Syria, war is all we know over here. Murder rate going up faster than it is in Chicago, bodies being caught all around me it's scary I just pray to God I don't get got. Noun Plural getting, bodies dropping, live's ending and then one day I get got, an RPG is firing at me low because of some who ran off on the plug. I'm going down and I'm going down fast I'm crumbling and there is nothing that can stop me everyone in me is going to die, it's sad really but i'm lucky I even lasted this long with everything going on.
