Starship Troopers

I always get the shakes before a _____Noun_____. I've had the _____Noun Plural_____, of course, and the _____Adjective_____ preparation, and it stands to reason that I can't really be _____Adjective_____. The ship's _____medical professional_____ has checked my _____Part of Body_____ waves and asked me _____Adjective_____ questions while I was asleep and he tells me that it isn't _____Emotion_____, it isn't anything important - it's just like the trembling of an _____Adjective_____ race _____Animal_____ in the _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ gate.

I couldn't say about that; I've never been a race _____same animal_____. But the fact is: I'm scared _____Adjective_____, every time.
