Starship Troopers

I always get the shakes before a _____ Noun _____. I've had the _____ Noun Plural _____, of course, and the _____ Adjective _____ preparation, and it stands to reason that I can't really be _____ Adjective _____. The ship's _____ medical professional _____ has checked my _____ Part of Body _____ waves and asked me _____ Adjective _____ questions while I was asleep and he tells me that it isn't _____ Emotion _____, it isn't anything important - it's just like the trembling of an _____ Adjective _____ race _____ Animal _____ in the _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____ gate. I couldn't say about that; I've never been a race _____ same animal _____. But the fact is: I'm scared _____ Adjective _____, every time.
