Fishy Business

Adam was, so he sat out by the pond and stared at the, wondering if aliens really existed. Then he saw lights. When he took a closer look (somehow), he realized it was a UFO. Suddenly, a beam of light shot down and abducted one of the fish from the pond. Adam jumped up and entered the beam of light to try and rescue the fish. Then next thing Adam knew, he was being abducted, too.
After a very short trip through the sky, Adam was inside the UFO, which was, not like Adam thought it would be. There were lights everywhere,in in some sort of sequenced pattern. A quiet verb Present ends in ING could be heard coming from all directions.
Adam saw his fish being placed in a tank of water by a creature that looked human, with the exception of a long elephant like trunk coming from its nose.
The fish was happily swimming in the tank and the creature turned his attention to Adam, the alien approached and extended his arm as if to shake hands. Adam instinctively reached out his hand and took hold of the six fingers. They felt, but Adam didn't have a chance to think about it because suddenly he was overcome with a horrendous smell like a bad fart. Then Adam fainted.
He woke up in extreme discomfort as the elephant trunk probed his butt. He, was consumed by the bad smell again, and passed out. The next time he woke up, he was laying in his backyard by the pond. He jumped up, confused, unsure of what was real and what had been a dream. Verb Present ends in ING into the pond, he desperately searched for the fish. It wasn't there. He looked harder, scanning beyond the surface, feeling fear build in the pit of his Water broke at the surface and the fish popped his head out, looked briefly at Adam with a new intensity, and went back under the water.

Adam scratched his and stared over the pond when he saw his reflection. A long trunk stared back at him. He, felt his face, and breathed a sigh of at the feel of his own normal nose. Crazy dream, he thought to himself, as he shook his and went inside the house. The invisible alien that had been hovering over the pond took one last look at the fish and then back onto his ship. The fish verb Past Tense around the pond.
