More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Storm

1. Adjective _____
2. Noun Plural _____
3. Noun _____
4. Noun _____
5. Noun Plural _____
6. Noun _____
7. Verb Past Tense _____
8. Verb Past Tense _____

The Storm

It was very _____Adjective_____ outside when the storm began. Ryan and Adam were not sure of what they should do. The power had gone out, and they could not see anything in their house. The two _____Noun Plural_____ were worried that the power would be out for a long time. It also made them nervous because they had only lived in their new house for less than three months. Ryan wanted to look in the kitchen for batteries. His favorite red _____Noun_____ was not working. Adam wanted to search the garage for matches. His father stored some matches in the same place in their old house. Both boys were afraid to leave the other alone. The thought of being separated in the dark scared both boys. Ryan decided to have his younger brother stay with him. The boys would look for the two items together.

After checking the _____Noun_____, the brothers were unable to find any _____Noun Plural_____ for the _____Noun_____. The boys worked up the courage to go to the garage and look for matches. The boys both put on their rain jackets and ran as fast as they could out to the back garage. They _____Verb Past Tense_____ that their mom had left an extra key to the door on the side of the garage near a mat. Adam picked up the key from under the mat and opened the door. Ryan quickly located the matches and placed them under his rain jacket so they would not get wet going back into the house. The boys ran back into the house soaking wet. The brothers _____Verb Past Tense_____ the candles in the kitchen and smiled at one another. They worked together to solve their problem.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.