Kearns Partnerships for Student Success

Annually, in Utah, we make significant _____ Noun and _____ Noun investments across all sections of the education _____ Noun. Despite these investments, disparities based on where our children _____ Verb Base _____ Form, what language they _____ Verb Base Form first, how much _____ Noun Plural their parents make, and the color of their skin persist and - in many locations - grow.

In the Kearns High School _____ Noun pattern (total K-12 enrollment: 6,282), disparities are especially apparent. Established in 2011, the Promise Kearns _____ Noun, led by United Way of Salt Lake (UWSL), has been _____ Verb Present ends in ING to address these disparities. UWSL, the lead _____ Noun for the Partnerships for Student Success _____ Noun, and Promise Kearns partners recognize that the moment could not be more _____ Adjective to invest in the partnerships and systems that will create better _____ Noun Plural for our children, families, and communities. Promise Kearns draws on the _____ Noun Plural and _____ Noun Plural of Granite School District, multiple nonprofits, private businesses, government agencies, philanthropies, healthcare organizations, and Salt Lake County. This proposal builds on a _____ Noun that exists in four community schools, with a plan to scale that framework to the entire Kearns High Feeder _____ Noun.
