The Adventures of Rachel and Sean

There once was a Adjective girl named Rachel who lived in the Adjective land of Wyoming. She was Adjective with hair like Noun and everyone loved her. One day, she met a Adjective boy named Sean, who thought Rachel was the most Adjective woman ever. The two became the Adjective of friends and went on many Adjective adventures together. They Verb Past Tense in love, and were married in a Adjective ceremony surrounded by family and friends. Number years and Number children later, the couple looked back at their Adjective life, their marriage flourishing in part due to the Adjective advice of their loved ones: Always Verb Base Form each other before going to bed; Never Verb Base Form each other who is wrong. Rachel should always Verb Base Form Sean's Noun, and Sean should always Verb Base Form Rachel's Noun. And they lived Adverb ever after!
