Chaplain Verbatim

We were all _____ Adjective to start the summer internship. Our first week was full of training and _____ Verb Present ends in ING lost on our _____ Noun. We were each assigned a unit in the hospital and encouraged to jump into the deep end. Our visits ranged from _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____ Noun Plural to sitting with families during loss. We were uncomfortable and _____ Adjective to live out of calling to _____ Noun. Our supervisor was very _____ Adjective and _____ Verb Past Tense us each step of the way. In our first group meeting, we _____ Verb Past Tense in IPR without saying a word to one another but as the summer progressed, we learned to _____ Verb Base Form up to one another about our _____ Noun and what was on our _____ Noun. We learned how to sit in _____ Noun, be comfortable with _____ Noun, and how to listen to patient's _____ Noun stories. We all had some favorite visits that encouraged us to continue the work and also difficult visits that needed to debrief and learn from.
