A Day at the Salon

It was a [Adjective] [season] day and I had just gotten to at the [Adjective] [Noun] Salon.

As I [Verb Past Tense] into work, my first client [First Name of a Person], was already waiting for me. [exclamation]! I said. [question]? Let's start your color. After [Verb Present ends in ING] her color formula, I began to [Verb Base Form] the color onto her [Part of Body]. We let the color process for [time frame]. Next, we rinsed it out in the [appliance]. She decided she needed a trim, so I got out my [tool] and began.

Lastly, I dried and styled her hair with my trusty [tool].

[exclamation]! she said. I can't believe how [Adjective] I look! You are the best [profession] that has ever done my hair! She booked her next appointment for [time frame] from now, and tipped me [dollar amount]!

I was a great start to the day!
