

THE NIGHT MAN

1. Adjective
2. Verb Past Tense
3. Adjective
4. Noun
5. Verb Past Tense
6. Adjective
7. Verb Past Tense
8. Noun
9. Noun
10. Adjective
11. Noun
12. Verb Past Tense
13. Noun
14. Verb Past Tense
15. Adjective
16. Adjective
17. Noun
18. Noun
19. Noun
20. Noun
21. Noun
22. Verb Past Tense
23. Verb Past Tense

- 24. Noun
- 25. Noun
- 26. Adjective
- 27. Noun
- 28. Verb Past Tense
- 29. Noun
- 30. Adjective
- 31. Verb Past Tense
- 32. Adjective

THE NIGHT MAN

Once upon a time there was a Adjective man who Verb Past Tense in a Adjective Noun. He never Verb Past Tense out during the day since his physical appearance was Adjective, but every night he Verb Past Tense out around the Noun and Noun who saw him got so Adjective that couldn't speak anymore, until one day a brave Noun Verb Past Tense to live in the Noun and was Verb Past Tense the story. One Adjective and Adjective night the new Noun of the Noun went out and found the Noun sitting down in a Noun in the main Noun, when the new guest Verb Past Tense him, he Verb Past Tense: are you so called the famous Noun who is causing problem to the Noun of this town ?

the Adjective Noun Verb Past Tense, yes I am. and you better leave the Noun if you don't want to live the same experience.

the Adjective man answer, Verb Past Tense better leave the town and let its people live quietly, I am not afraid of you, come you and all the Adjective men like you. Then, three shots were heard that night and ever since neither the problem guy nor the man were seen in the town anymore.