Going to Teach Abroad

1.	Noun
2.	Verb Past Tense
3.	Adjective
4.	Verb Past Tense
5.	Preposition
6.	Preposition
7.	Adjective
8.	Location
9.	Noun
10.	First Name Of A Person
11.	Conjunction
12.	Adverb
13.	Pronoun
14.	Article
15.	Noun Plural
16.	Verb Past Tense
17.	Verb Base Form

Going to Teach Abroad

Catherine did not know what to do this All her friends either had a job or verb Past Tense going traveling. Catherine was because she did not hear back from any of the organizations she for. She applied a lot of different internships and jobs. The wait was long and agonizing for her. Finally, she received an email. The email congratulated her getting the internship, which was a position in Japan. She was going to be teaching lessons on leadership in to young high students. was so excited to receive this internship. This was her top choice. She was nervous she would not get it there were many applicants. It was competitive. was excited to travel and also meet many high school students. Catherine was passionate about education and leadership. This internship was perfect for her. She was nervous to travel abroad since this was her first time. She did not know what to expect in foreign country. She also did not speak Japanese, which may be challenging for her.
The Noun Plural did not scare her. She was ready for the internship. She planned her trip early and began to make lists of things she needed to bring and what she to do. She also met with past interns to ask them about their experiences. She wanted to be as prepared for the trip as possible. Catherine wanted to do the best job she could and verb Base Form a big impact on the students.