Chris and Marie met online, through a Verb Present ends in ING site. It should come as no surprise to family and friends that she Verb Past Tense the conversation, but who could have predicted that he'd turn out to be even more Adjective than her? They stayed on the telephone for Number whole Noun Plural that February evening. And, though he had already impressed her with his ready command of the Noun Noun, she didn't agree to a coffee date for that coming weekend. He asked her again the following Saturday, but she already had plans with her coworker for a Adjective Noun Plural Valentines Day with Effie and Sadie. Third time was the charm, when she accepted his invitation to Noun for February 20th. But did she ever feel silly when she realized that the restaurant she chose was one floor down from his Noun. Ever the gentleman, he insisted they Verb Base Form dinner there anyway. And the rest is history!
