Kelly B.

This spring I got a new calf! I _____ Abstract Noun her. I named her _____ Proper Noun. When she was first born she was very fond of running around her _____ Noun and acting crazy! When she would run around, I would say " Sugar, _____ Demonstrative was _____ Adjective!" But she usually just kept doing it. She is a Jersey, so she is _____ Adjective and looks kind of like a _____ Noun. Every night I feed her a bottle of milk. Sugar usually finishes her bottle pretty slowly, but one night she _____ Irregular past tense verb her bottle super-fast! Sometimes I speak the _____ Proper Adjective language to her to practice for school. She probably thinks I'm crazy! Sugar is in a pen with Shelly's calf Cora, but Sugar is _____ Comparative. As of now, Cora is the _____ Superlative calf we own.
