Matthew Beaston

I had a friend and he was proper adjective he really liked is home in Paris we went everywhere together one day we played football I would Verb Past Tense him and he would Verb Past Tense me sometimes. Also, he always wore Adjective his name was Roberto. He abstract noun his commom noun Proper Noun that was why he only had Milo he got rid of his other three. I was comparative than him and he was the superlative friend I had. demonstrative pretty much all I got so have a good day.
