Sonnet 18 (William Shakespeare - and you)

Shall I Verb Base Form thee to a summer's Noun?

Thou art more Adjective and more temperate:

Rough Noun Plural do Verb Base Form the darling Noun Plural of May,

And summer's lease hath all too short a date;

Sometime too Adjective the Body Part of heaven Verb Present ends in S,

And often is his gold Noun dimm'd;

And every Noun from fair sometime declines,

By Noun or nature's Verb Present ends in ING course untrimm'd;

But thy Adjective summer shall not fade,

Nor lose possession of that Noun thou ow'st;

Nor shall Noun brag thou wander'st in his shade,

When in eternal Noun Plural to time thou grow'st:

So long as Noun Plural can breathe or Body Part can see,

So long lives this, and this gives Noun to thee.
