More stories at WordBlanks.com

Brayden's hamster Boris.

1. Common Noun _____
2. Proper Noun _____
3. Demonstrative _____
4. Verb Past Tense _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Abstract Noun _____
7. Proper Adjective _____
8. Comparative _____
9. Superlative _____

Brayden's hamster Boris.

Last night, my _____Common Noun_____ _____Proper Noun_____ was eating carrots because he was hungry. Suddenly he was _____Demonstrative_____ of eating carrots. Later, He _____Verb Past Tense_____ on his wheel. His wheel was _____Adjective_____ blue. Then Korean hamsters showed up to take his carrots, he was _____Abstract Noun_____. Then he thought _____Proper Adjective_____ hamsters were _____Comparative_____ than Russian hamsters. Then he thought Russian hamsters were the _____Superlative_____ between Korean and Chinese hamsters.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.