More stories at WordBlanks.com

Pippen's Choice

1. Adjective _____
2. Noun _____
3. Verb Base Form _____
4. Part Of Body _____
5. Noun _____
6. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
7. Noun _____
8. Verb Past Tense _____
9. Adjective _____
10. Adverb _____
11. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
12. Verb Past Tense _____
13. Verb Past Tense _____
14. Adjective _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Part Of Body _____
17. Number _____
18. Noun _____
19. Group Of People _____
20. Noun Plural _____
21. Noun Plural _____

Pippen's Choice

Pippen had a choice to make. He looked up into the _____Adjective_____ face of the witch, trying to decide. Would he drink the poisoned _____Noun_____ juice or would he _____Verb Base Form_____ at her long _____Part of Body_____? If he did that he knew she would turn him into a _____Noun_____. And the poison wouldn't kill him, it would only make him fall asleep and dream about _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ in _____Noun_____ while the witch destroyed all the candy in the world. This would make Sadie and Orlando very sad and Pippen hated for them to be sad, but what could he do?

The witch _____Verb Past Tense_____ her foot because she was bored of waiting for Pip to make his decision. Suddenly Pip remembered what the gray chicken had told him. "Do the _____Adjective_____ things, Pip," she had said.

"Yes," he thought. "I will be brave! I will make this witch sorry she ever pestered me." He attacked her _____Adverb_____ and without _____Verb Present ends in ING_____. His paws _____Verb Past Tense_____ and _____Verb Past Tense_____. The witch shrieked in surprise. She gasped, "Bad, bad dog!" But Pippen didn't mind. He was bad, oh yes! Bad news for her! Pippen laughed a _____Adjective_____, _____Adjective_____ laugh as he stood on her _____Part of Body_____. "Now," he said, "now you will collect _____number_____ bags of candy and give them to Sadie and Orlando, because now I am the _____Noun_____ in charge."

Sadie

and Orlando rejoiced and the _____group of people_____ came and took the witch away. Pip thought he heard them say they were going to give her some _____Noun Plural_____. Pip wanted some _____Noun Plural_____ and so Sadie and Orlando gave him some.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.