Don't mess with squirrels

One day, you may find yourself in a situation of needing to live off of squirrels. I have walked that so I can tell you about it. First of all, it's harder than you think to verb Base Form a squirrel.
I've tried many types of and I discovered that the Adjective Ends in EST kind is a series of card board boxes that perfectly form into a when the is tripped. It's even harder to the neck of a squirrel once you've caught it. I met a woodland traveler named who was vegetarian so never attempted to verb Base Form a squirrel. She went to my cardboard trap and was about to the squirrel's the squirrel's The squirrel laid its baby eyes on same name, and same name felt a connection adjective ending in -er than she ever felt in her life. They stared at each other for minutes and a single Adjective tear rolled down Same name cheek. onamotapoeia! The squirrel jumped onto Same name face and Verb Past Tense her facial feature out. It Verb Past Tense into the forest, never to be seen again. From that day on, Same name became a Adjective woodland traveler. This is why you should not with squirrels.
