Journal Entries From An Autism Researcher

Mas must be _____ Verb Present ends in ING inside right now. There are no _____ Adjective seats in the whole of the train and he is forced to sit..._____ Number seat away from someone. That is his worst nightmare (human contact) so I do not know how he is going to _____ Verb Base Form. He has gone into a state of _____ state eg shock fear and has been staring directly at me for the past _____ Number minutes. His _____ plural part of body are like _____ Noun Plural and his _____ Part of Body is _____ Verb Past Tense back as if he is _____ Adjective.

Mas is continuing to behave in the same way. He has _____ Verb Past Tense his _____ Verb Past Tense together and is _____ Verb Present ends in ING straight _____ up or down or left or right. I asked Mas about the one _____ Adjective show and while he did _____ Verb Base Form, the instant we finished talking about it, he proceeded to _____ Verb Base Form _____ up or down or left or right again. Mas made no effort to _____ Verb Base Form any imaginary race which he loves to make up and then " _____ Repeat Last Verb Base Form ", which is a positive. He has also made no effort to talk to me, which while _____ Adjective, it does give me relief from topics, such as " _____ pejorative term for something or someone " and "did you watch <programme that I hate/programme that you can't watch on freeview.>?" which is also _____ Adjective. Now Mas is _____ Verb Present ends in ING straight out of the window. His _____ plural part of body are as _____ Adjective as his Father's, only, his _____ same plural part of body aren't _____ Adjective like his _____ part of body - ends in LESS Dad's. God only knows what _____ Adjective thoughts Mas may be having up there. Only time will tell

The Pursuits of Mas Arsehead

Entry number 20420, day 57.

I said _____phrase_____ to Mas today and all he _____Adverb_____ said was " _____phrase_____ ". He was _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ down the whole time and still is. I think he is looking at a _____Noun_____ in the ground. Perhaps he is _____Adjective_____ from having to walk so _____Adverb_____. Mas _____Verb Past Tense_____ his _____Part of Body_____ and looked to the _____left or right_____ only to look down again. Classic Mas...so unbelievably _____Adjective_____.

Today I made a truly _____Adjective_____ discovery. When Mas _____Verb Present ends in S_____, his _____Part of Body_____ muscles completely tense up with each step he takes, locking his _____Part of Body_____, _____Part of Body_____ and _____Part of Body_____ in a perfect line.

Pursuits of Mas Arsehead

Today Mas was being a classic autist. He started off by _____ (and might I add _____?) completing the ticket machine for me. God only knows why he thought I was incapable of _____ _____, since he's seen me _____ on multiple occasions beforehand.

Here we can see more proof of Mas' autism. He decided to tell me that my laces were " _____
_____ " by _____ on them. Unfortunately, since my laces are _____ _____ than his he perceives them to be " _____ " and " _____ ".

The Pursuits of Mas Arsehead

Mas started out being fairly _____ by following me to the ticket machine, only not to talk to me because there were more than _____ people around him. He didn't _____ buttons for me, thank God, but he was acting autistic nonetheless. The first journey was _____. Mas didn't do a single autistic thing, but within the first _____ minutes of the second part he told me that a phone stand I got "looked stupid". I asked him how on Earth a phone stand could look _____ pejorative term for the mentally disabled _____ and he replied with "It just does".

DAY 28, Entry 11 of

The Pursuits of Mas Arsehead

Mas has shown increasing signs of autistic behaviour. In particular, _____ Adjective _____ and at times _____ Adjective _____. Mas has; _____ Verb Past Tense _____, _____ Verb Past Tense _____, _____ Verb Past Tense _____, called something _____ Adjective _____ it was not, and frankly, he's fulfilled the very definition of an autist.

Day 23, entry 15

_____ Adjective _____ news everybody! Mas has ever-so-slightly improved. He did not follow me to the ticket machine only to autistically _____ Verb Base Form _____ the buttons faster than me because "everything's a competition
, Luge". Unfortunately, I took a _____ Verb Base Form _____ to my self-esteem and overall sense of being when Mas told me that I had one _____ article of clothing _____ untucked. While Mas started off in an _____ Adjective _____ manner, he pulled a 180° and told me I looked Adjective. Not only is that Adjective, further proving his lack of social convention knowledge, but also (as expletive always) used Adjective when, in this case, he meant Adjective. I thought I would keep Mas from Verb Present ends in ING someone today by allowing him to sit antisocially. By this I mean he places his Noun Plural across as many train seats as possible to ensure that no one Verb Present ends in S near him. I had failed to complete his task of Verb Present ends in ING out of the window until I saw something of importance to him and him alone which made him quite Adjective. He is currently sitting Adverb looking into a light on the train. I smiled at Mas to test his reactions, but instead of smiling back or acting confused, he just Verb Past Tense straight ahead. Mas exhibits very odd behaviours during the rain. I shall have to document this further.

Mas spoke to me about "THE LIST!" and as usual Verb Past Tense it to try to make everyone else seem Adjective. Mas didn't Verb Base Form me Adverb on the Part of Body today. He also made two Adjective jokes. The first one was "people are afraid of Animal (plural)...because they are" and the second was "this is a great Noun". Mas has slowed down - the rain must have really gotten into his Part of Body cavities today.

Day 423, Entry number 3729

The Pursuits of Mas Arsehead

After a whole year, Mas is showing great signs of improvement. On the rare occasions which I use the ticket machine, he does still like to _____ Verb Base Form the buttons _____ Adverb. However, he does not _____ Verb Base Form, sit in _____ Number seaters or make _____ Adjective jokes. Mas' autism (or tism as the autism research community have shortened it to) is slowly subsiding, which is great news for all his family. He still prefers to not _____ Verb Base Form near anyone on the train, but his verbal tism is at an all time low.
