A to Z - What could it be?

At Boomers today, we went on a scavenger hunt! I had an Adjective time. Before we could start we had to learn Adjective rules. Caution! You must walk Adverb, and stay with a Adjective adult at all times! During the scavenger hunt, I had a Adjective time finding some of the items. Eventually, I Verb Base Form all the Noun Plural and finished before the time was up! My friends helped me when I needed it, and the adults kept us Verb Present ends in ING in the right direction. Going towards the Noun Noun, we saw another group finish the scavenger hunt too. Adjective smiles covered everyone's face as we headed towards the Noun. Inside is where we were supposed to meet up. Just in time, we made it. The kitchen was open for business. Lunch was the next thing on our daily agenda. My lunch was Adjective, I had a(n) Noun Noun. Proper Noun Plural sat next to me as we all Verb Past Tense our food. Obviously, we cleaned up our Noun after so we could go outside to ride all the Adjective rides. Patiently waiting in line, I looked forward to my turn. Quickly the ride ended and I was next! The Noun Noun was my favorite ride because it goes Adverb. Verb Present ends in ING in line for the next one, I started to daydream about Noun Plural Noun Plural and Noun Plural. Taking turns on each ride gave me a lot of time to think about Noun Plural. Unfortunately, we had to leave soon and go back to All-Star. In the van, I had a chance to rest my Noun and talk to my friends about Noun Plural and Noun Plural. We all had so much fun, my favorite part of the day was eating a hot dog. Boomers was eXtremely fun and I can't wait to go again. Have you ever been to Boomers? You probably can find one close to your zip code. At Boomers you can do all kinds of _____ stuff! Next time we have a camp at Boomers I will _____ ask my parents to sign me up. The scavenger hunt was _____.
