The Piranha Brothers - Monty Python (Part III)

"I decided on a _____Adjective_____ approach, some form of disguise, as the old _____Item of clothing_____ and _____Item of clothing - Plural_____ are a bit of a giveaway. Luckily my years with Bristol Rep. stood me in _____Adjective_____ stead, as I assumed a _____Adjective_____ variety of disguises. I tracked them to Cardiff, _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ as the Reverend Smiler Egret. Hearing they'd gone back to London, I assumed the identity of a _____Profession_____ , Brian Stoats. On my arrival in London, I discovered they had _____Verb Past Tense_____ to Cardiff, I followed as Gloucester from King Lear. _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ on a _____Noun_____ I spent several months in _____Foreign City_____ as Blind Pew, returning through the Panama Canal as Ratty, in Toad of Toad Hall.

Back in Cardiff, I _____Verb Past Tense_____ my _____Noun_____ as Sancho Panza in Man of la Mancha which the "Bristol Evening Post" described as 'a _____Adjective_____ performance of _____Adjective_____ perception', although the "Bath Chronicle" was less than enthusiastic. In fact it gave me a right _____Verb Present ends in ING_____. I quote: 'as for the performance of Superintendent _____Detectives first name_____ "_____Detectives nickname_____" _____Detectives surname_____ as Sancho Panza, the audience were _____Verb Past Tense_____ by his _____Adjective_____ _____Nationality_____ _____Noun_____ and _____Verb Past Tense_____ by his _____Adjective_____ _____Noun Plural_____.' The "Western Daily News" said: 'Sancho Panza (Mr _____Detectives surname_____) _____Verb Past Tense_____ an otherwise

_____Adverb_____ choreographed _____Crime eg shoplifting_____ scene by his _____Adjective_____ appearance and _____Adjective_____ cries of "What's all this then?""

Against this kind of opposition for the _____Surname A_____ Brothers the end was _____Adjective_____.
