

Holiday Card Cohan style

1. Winter Holiday
2. Adjective
3. Snowy Place
4. Adjective
5. Beverage
6. Noun
7. Noun

Holiday Card Cohan style

Happy winter holiday from the Cohan Family!

This year has been positive Adjective .

We had the great pleasure to travel to snowy place place to go skiing. The snow was Adjective .

The hot tub was a great place to sip beverage and chat with the local Noun .

We also spent time Noun and two-wheel sport. Whether in the mountains or on the roads, the experience was always filled with . singular noun and plural noun .

Steve is still wishy-washy adjective working. Mostly he spends his time recreational activity, recreational activity, recreational activity and recreational activity.

Jill is also working. She non-committal adjective teaching middle school students. She enjoys outdoor activity and anything but working .

Hayden is finally a Senior! He has almost selected a college. Institution of higher learning and institution of higher learning are his absolute favorites. He is adjective describing a sloth completing scholarship applications. Sport in water , sport on snow , and running keep him active. Calculus keeps him in synonym for anguish. His passion for anywhere outside has led him to Environmental Science or college avoidance activity .

Marin is finally a Freshman! She is meeting lots of new friends though school activity, school activity and school activity. Sport with a ball, sport without a ball and running keep her active. Like her mother, kicking Noun, preferably involving round objects is her outlet to reduce stress.

The house in Puerto Rico is in any number >1 pieces after Hurricanes Irma and Maria. A little body part grease and it will be back to positive adjective. In the meantime Culebra is still a adjective place to best day ever spent doing.

Have a very adjective holiday season.