Christmas

During winter my favorite thing to do is build Noun Plural. I hardly ever get to see snow. My mom says he have to go Noun, but I don't want to. She pulls me by the Noun to come in. When I come in I'm Adjective, but then I see Noun Noun and that made me Adjective. I slurped it down Verb Base Form and went back out side. She said, "Comand." I was like "Comand!" Then she said I needed my Noun, so I got it from her and continued to play.
