More stories at WordBlanks.com

Speaking to Nosy Family Members at the Holidays

1. Holiday _____
2. Adjective _____
3. Male Name _____
4. Noun _____
5. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
6. Your Age _____
7. Female Name _____
8. School Subject _____
9. Noun _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Family Relation _____
12. Occupation _____
13. Adjective _____
14. Female Name _____
15. Verb Past Tense _____
16. Adjective _____
17. Verb Base Form _____

Speaking to Nosy Family Members at the Holidays

Every year when I go to my aunt's house for _____holiday_____, all my relatives like to ask me _____Adjective_____ questions about my life.

Firstly, Uncle _____male name_____ asked me if I have a girlfriend. I told him no, that right now I am focusing on _____Noun_____ and not interested in _____Verb Present ends in ING_____. He said I needed to get dating soon before I get infertile. I'm only _____your age_____, but I appreciate the concern.

Next, Aunt _____female name_____ asked me how school is going. I didn't want to tell her that I got a C in _____school subject_____ and a D in _____Noun_____ Studies. Instead, I told her I got straight As and that my professors think I am _____Adjective_____ and a great student.

Lastly, I had to listen to my _____family relation_____ Bartholomew brag about his new job as a _____occupation_____ and how he and his _____Adjective_____ girlfriend _____female name_____ are getting _____Verb Past Tense_____ in the spring. How _____Adjective_____!

I _____Verb Base Form_____ seeing my family on the holidays! I wish they would mind their own business!

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.