Just Another Day at the Neenah-Menasha YMCA

One day when I was coming in to work, I saw (First Name of a Person W.) in the parking lot. I called out, "it's a (Adjective) day!" As I walked in, I was confronted with a (Adjective) scene. Before my eyes was (First Name of a Person H.), with a (Adjective) (Adjective). He/She shouted, "Quick! Bring me a (Object)." As I (Verb Past Tense) to retrieve it, I thought, (Expression!!) that is really (Adjective)! Once this situation was under control, I went to my desk and booted up my computer. The first thing I saw was an email from (First Name of a Person) announcing another company (Object)-fest. How can I (Adverb) make that happen today, I wondered. Later, (First Name of a Person K.) (Style of Dance Style)-ed over to my desk, just to say what a (Adverb) job I did on my last (Noun). (First Name of a Person First Name of a Person.) told (First Name of a Person) there was some kind of (Object) on the (Piece of furniture) in the breakroom. Wait, isn't that (Adverb) against the rules? Yes, I love working at the Y!
