The Venetian's Defiant Woman

"You will regret making an Noun of me, Ms. Bennett."

Orlando Rossi put just enough abstract noun on her name to Verb Base Form Charlie he would never believe she was the Charlie Bennett, the art expert he had been expecting to Verb Base Form on him in Proper Noun.

"I have no intention of making either an Noun or a Noun of you, Signor Rossi," Charlie Verb Past Tense him. "As far as I'm concerned, this is Adverb abstract noun."

So why was she here, inside Orlando Rossi's Adjective abstract noun palace in the foothills of the mountains surrounding Proper Noun? Was it because he Verb Past Tense her like a Animal to an Adjective flame?

She could Adverb Verb Base Form it was business that had Verb Past Tense her to his country estate, when Orlando's eyes called her a Noun, and her own Part of Body did, too, Verb Present ends in ING so loud she was sure he must Verb Base Form it.

To date all the Verb Present ends in ING between them had been by letter and over the Internet, and nothing could have Verb Past Tense her for Verb Present ends in ING Orlando Rossi in the flesh. And now that she was here, it was one thing proving she knew what she was talking about where art was concerned, but another agreeing to view Orlando's Adjective Noun in his room of house.

"You must have it Verb Past Tense downstairs for me to Verb Base Form," she told him. "Or I might as well Verb Base Form now."

* * * She was so Adjective, so Adjective and so Adjective, and as she Verb Past Tense her Part of Body to issue her demands, he wanted her there and then against the wall at the Noun of the stairs. Art could Verb Base Form. He had other abstract noun plural on his Part of Body, like Verb Present ends in ING his plural part of body through that Adjective red-gold Part of Body. Like taming her.

He might Verb Base Form her everything then, even her abstract noun and the Adjective sketch she'd made of him that his men had Verb Past Tense on the banks of the Grand Canal.

She Verb Past Tense as his Part of Body Verb Past Tense out to block her escape, but then, just as he expected, her Part of Body darkened. She wanted him as much as he wanted her, and there seemed no point in Verb Present ends in ING themselves. "It's time you learned some respect," he Verb Past Tense,
