Christmas at the Chatsfield

Nico was thankful they were wearing the _____plural item of clothing_____. Otherwise, he knew Lucy would be able to see the _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ on his _____Part of Body_____. Would be able to see just how close he was to losing control.

He moved his _____Part of Body_____ up from her _____Part of Body_____, along the _____Adjective_____ curve of her _____Part of Body_____, to the _____Adjective_____, _____Adjective_____ temptation of her _____Part of Body_____. A mere _____Noun_____ could never make them _____Noun Plural_____, though he appreciated the small barrier it provided. Still, had he been wearing a _____plural item of clothing_____ he would've known it was her. Would have known the particular _____Noun_____ of her skin, the exact slope of the indent of her _____Part of Body_____, just where her _____Part of Body_____ grew _____comparative adjective_____.

He knew her body as well as he _____Verb Past Tense_____ his own.

This was the last time.

That was the agreement.

Her _____Part of Body_____ went to his _____item of clothing_____, _____Adjective_____ _____Part of Body_____ _____Verb_____ _____Present ends in ING_____ the silk through the knot. He had forgotten the simple pleasure of having her _____Verb Base Form_____ him. The _____abstract noun_____ in anticipating their coming together. Before their marriage he had been with _____Adjective_____ women, but from the moment his _____Part of Body_____ had touched hers, he had never wanted another.

Slowly, she slipped her _____Part of Body_____ inside his _____item of clothing_____, her _____Part of Body_____ _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ _____Preposition_____ his _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ heartbeat.

He lifted his gaze from her _____Adjective_____ body to her _____Part of Body_____. She was trying to _____Verb Base Form_____ too. Trying to use the _____item of clothing_____ to conceal how she felt in the _____abstract noun_____ of this moment. He raised his own _____Part of Body_____, placed it over hers, _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ it against his _____Part of Body_____. Then he closed the distance between them and _____Verb Past Tense_____ her.

Lucy made quick work of her husband's clothes, repeating actions she had carried out hundreds of times before. But this was different. Final. It made her _____Verb Base Form_____.

She _____Verb Past Tense_____ in the sight of him. His _____Adjective_____ _____Part of Body_____ and _____Part of Body_____, sprinkled with just the right amount of _____Part of Body_____ hair. His _____Adjective_____ _____Part of Body_____ that shifted and rippled with each indrawn breath. And of course, the most male part of him, the part of him that she was desperate for now.

She memorized every detail. The flex of his _____Part of Body_____, the way his _____Part of Body_____ _____Verb Past Tense_____ around the bedspread, the _____Adjective_____ wedding band he still wore bright against his _____Adjective_____ skin, the _____Part of Body_____ in the back of his _____Part of Body_____ standing out as he fought to anchor himself to the bed.

She _____Verb Past Tense_____ his lap, _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ him _____Adverb_____ as she pressed her _____Part of Body_____ against him. It was _____Adjective_____, there was no denying it, but there was also something deeply _____Adjective_____ about being close to him like this again. Being _____Part of Body_____ to _____Repeat Last Part of Body_____.

She had, after years of it, taken such _____abstract noun_____ for granted. Had been certain it hadn't been _____abstract noun_____ at all. But now that she had been living without him, she knew that hadn't been true. Recognized, that there had been more _____abstract noun_____ when they _____Verb Past Tense_____ than she had begun to imagine. Empty, she had allowed herself to believe it was _____Adjective_____.

Now she felt that evaluation may have been _____Adjective_____.

"Have

you continued to take your _____Adjective_____ pill?" he asked, his voice _____Adjective_____, _____Adjective_____.

He was as near the edge as she was, and she found it immensely _____Adjective_____.

She _____Verb Past Tense_____, because speech was beyond. His _____Part of Body_____ went slightly slack, abject relief visible on his face even with some of his features obscured by the _____item of clothing_____.

He wrapped his arm around her _____Part of Body_____, moving his hand down to cup her _____Part of Body_____, and at the same time sweeping her _____item of clothing_____ to the side. She shifted her position, and allowed him to slide deep inside of her.

Tears _____Verb Past Tense_____ the back of her eyes and she shut them _____Adjective_____ to try and keep them back.

How had she ever thought this was _____Adjective_____?

This was the last time. And she feared, that without Nico, she would never be anything but _____Adjective_____ ever again.

He was surrounded by her, lost in her. The feel of her, the scent of her. He _____Verb Past Tense_____ up, sifting his _____Part of Body_____ through her silky curtain of dark curls, relishing the sensation. He flexed his _____Part of Body_____, sliding deeper inside the _____Adjective_____ heat of her _____Part of Body_____.

He had thought their first time, five years ago, was _____Adjective_____. But it was nothing in comparison to this. Because in their first time had been the promise of forever, while this was the promise of an end. And with that came the desperation to make it count, to make it last. To make sure she would _____Verb Base Form_____, forever.

Because he would.

He grabbed hold of her _____Part of Body_____, moving into a standing position, wrapping her _____Part of Body_____ around his waist, keeping himself buried deep inside of her. He turned and _____Verb Past Tense_____ her back to the bed, reversing their positions and _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ down inside of her.

He was as deep in her as he could possibly get, and it wasn't enough. It would never be enough.

She _____Verb Past Tense_____, arching against him and he captured the sound with his _____Part of Body_____, _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ her as he allowed himself to get lost in the rhythm of their bodies. Lost in her.

Soon, too soon, his _____abstract noun_____ rushed up to meet him, overtaking him like a _____Adjective_____ beast, grabbing him by the _____Part of Body_____ and _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ him hard, leaving pleasure to bleed out through his body in an unstoppable tide. He gritted his _____Part of Body_____ and _____Verb Past Tense_____ into her one last time, grinding against the bundle of nerves at the apex of her _____Part of Body_____, holding position until she made the sweet familiar sound of release, her internal muscles _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ around him.

He didn't move, not for a long while. Her _____Adjective_____ lips parted, a long sigh escaping.

And then a single tear tracked from beneath her _____Adjective_____ _____item of clothing_____ and slid down her _____Part of Body_____, leaving a _____Adjective_____ blot on the _____Noun_____ case.

"Lucy?" he asked, _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ away from her.

She shook her _____Part of Body_____. "No. No names. Please. Please let's be strangers."
