More stories at WordBlanks.com

Bicycle Fun Facts

1. Noun _____
2. Number _____
3. Verb Past Tense _____
4. Animal _____
5. Noun Plural _____
6. Noun _____
7. Noun _____
8. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
9. Verb Past Tense _____
10. Location _____
11. Number _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Number _____
14. Adverb _____
15. Noun Plural _____
16. Noun Plural _____
17. Noun _____
18. Noun _____
19. Noun _____
20. Noun _____
21. Location _____
22. Noun Plural _____
23. First Name Of A Person _____

24. Full Name Of A Person _____

25. Adjective _____

26. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____

27. Noun _____

28. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____

29. Number _____

30. Adverb _____

31. Noun _____

32. Noun Plural _____

33. Number _____

34. Verb Base Form _____

35. Verb Base Form _____

36. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____

37. Adjective _____

38. Verb Base Form _____

39. Adjective _____

Bicycle Fun Facts

Most kids like to ride [_____Noun_____]. Did you know they've been around for at least [_____Number_____] years? If you're like most kids, you've _____Verb Past Tense_____ a bicycle. Bikes are [_____Animal_____]-powered and most have wheels, two [_____Noun Plural_____], a frame, handlebars, and a [_____Noun_____]. There's also a [_____Noun_____] that help the back wheel move. Nothing too _____Verb Present ends in ING_____, right? Would you be [_____Verb Past Tense_____] to learn that a man in _____Location_____ built a bicycle that could be ridden by [_____Number_____] people at the same time? This [_____Adjective_____] bike was 140 feet long and had [_____Number_____] wheels! _____Adverb_____, a bicycle only has two wheels; the prefix 'bi-' means 'two.' The longest two-wheeled bicycle was 67 feet long and held 35 _____Noun Plural_____! Here are some other facts about _____Noun Plural_____. The famous [_____Noun_____] and [_____Noun_____] Leonardo da Vinci drew a plan for a bicycle-like invention over 500 years ago, but he never built one. A bicycle with one wheel is called a [_____Noun_____], and one with three wheels is called a [_____Noun_____]. The first use of the word 'bicycle' was in _____Location_____ almost 160 years ago. Before they were called bicycles, bikes were called [_____Noun Plural_____] which is pronounced vuh-LAH-suh-peedz. In the mid-1800s, [_____First Name of a Person_____ _____Full Name of a Person_____] built a velocipede that had wooden wheels and a [_____Adjective_____] iron frame. It was called the 'boneshaker,' so you can probably imagine what _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ it was like! The Wright Brothers, famous for building the first controlled [_____Noun_____], built and sold bicycles before they became interested in [_____Verb Present ends in ING_____]. Today, about _____Number_____ million bicycles are built every year. There are about [_____Adverb_____] as many bicycles as cars in the world. The penny farthing, also called a high-wheeled bicycle, had a huge front [Noun] and a smaller rear wheel. It was named after two coins in England which were of different [Noun Plural], like the wheels on the bicycle. The front wheel was as much as Number feet across! A bicycle doesn't actually [Verb Base Form] you any energy; you [Verb Base Form] the same energy on a bicycle that you do while [Verb Present ends in ING]. What the bicycle does do, is make you go [Adjective]! You can [Verb Base Form] up to three times faster on a bicycle while using the [Adjective] amount of energy as walking.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.