Police Chase

1. Noun Plural _____

2. Verb Base Form _____

3. Location _____

4. Gender _____

5. Adjective _____

6. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____

7. Adjective _____

8. Noun _____

9. Noun _____

10. Noun _____

11. Noun Plural _____

12. Business _____

13. Crime _____

14. Noun _____

15. Business _____

16. Adjective _____

17. Noun _____

18. Part Of Body _____

19. Crime _____

20. Crime _____

21. Number _____

Police Chase

Being a police officer can be risky work, at any time or place a group of _____Noun Plural_____ can jump out of nowhere and _____Verb Base Form_____ you. For example, on one occasion, I was patrolling the _____Location_____ region when i saw a _____Gender_____ laying down on the road, i stopped to make sure he was _____Adjective_____ but when i got out of my car he stood up and started _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ from me, I was _____Adjective_____ and started following suit. Once we rounded the _____Noun_____ I realized the man was now standing on top of a _____Noun_____, yelling obscenities. I hit him with the _____Noun_____ and put him in handcuffs, once I returned to my police car i noticed it was spray painted and there was a group of

_____Noun Plural_____ running North East towards the _____Business_____, I decided not to chase them in fear of officer safety. In another instance the same group of _____Repeat Last Noun Plural_____ attempted to commit

_____Crime_____, not on my watch I thought as my _____Noun_____ and I chased them down the street and through a _____Business_____, however they did not lose me because I was too _____Adjective_____! I tackled one of the

_____Repeat Last Noun Plural_____ and put him in handcuffs while calling for _____Noun_____, when suddenly one of the _____Repeat Last Part of Body_____ appeared from a dark room and kicked me in the _____Part of Body_____. The offenders were later caught and charged with _____Crime_____, assaulting a police officer and _____Crime_____ and were sentenced to _____Number_____ years in the state penitentiary.