The Very Brave Adventurer

Once upon a time in the kingdom of Viles, there lived a(n) brave adventurer named Name A . The kingdom was a peaceful kingdom, where the animals roamed free and the food was plentiful.

Ruling over the kingdom was great King Nicklaus and Queen Lillian. Everyone in the kingdom was happy, until one day a villain named Mr. Mean came into the castle and stole the sacred ring.

King Nicklaus and Queen Lillian didn't know what to do. They wandered the countryside for days trying to come up with a plan. Finally, they met AdjectiveAdjective Ends in ESTAdverbNounNoun PluralProper NounProper Noun PluralVerb Joshua hopped on a horse and rode it to the dark cave where Mr. Mean lived. Joshua tip-toed into the cave then yelled "Hoo-ah!" Mr. Mean was startled and dropped the sacred ring.

Joshua grabbed it and raced back to King Nicklaus. Nicklaus was so grateful that he gave Joshua a beautiful sword in exchange for his appreciation. Everyone in the kingdom was so happy that they celebrated by eating delicious chicken. Mr. Mean never returned to the kingdom again and everyone live happily ever after!
