Excerpt from Harry Potter and the Cursed Child

SCORPIUS: Hi, Rose. Would you like some of my Adjective Noun Plural?

ROSE: I've just had breakfast, thanks.

SCORPIUS: I've also got some Shock-o-Choc, Pepper Imps, and some Adjective Noun Plural.

Mum's idea. Stupid idea, probably.

ALBUS: I'll have some . . . Mum doesn't let me have Repeat Last Noun Plural. Which one would you start with?

ROSE hits ALBUS. SCORPIUS: Easy. I've always regarded the Pepper Imp as the king of the confectionery bag . They're peppermint sweets that make you Verb Base Form on a Noun.

ALBUS: Brilliant, then that's what I'll -- . Rose, will you please stop Verb Present ends in ING me?

ROSE: I'm not Repeat Last Verb Present ends in ING you.

ALBUS: You are Repeat Last Verb Present ends in ING me, and it hurts.

SCORPIUS's face falls.

SCORPIUS: She's Repeat Last Verb Present ends in ING you because of my Repeat Last Noun Plural.
