Sally's Parking Garage

Sally, a Safety Advisor at the SHSA, had finished her day of training in, and was ready to and relax. She was excited to stay at her favorite hotel, the Adjective Noun Inn & Suites, since they had the Adjective Ends in EST Noun Plural in the city. When Sally arrived at her destination, she headed to the parking garage to park her trusty work vehicle
As Sally entered the garage, she heard a loud and under the vehicle height limit bar and scratched the top . " isn't going to be happy!"
Sally thought.
It was a quiet night at the hotel, as there were only other vehicles in the parking garage. Sally picked a spot close to the hotel entrance, so she wouldn't have to carry her box of too far.
As Sally was unloading her luggage from the vehicle, she realized she had to many items to carry. To her delight, a bellman came pushing a luggage cart.
! Sally thought. She would not have to carry her items all the way to her room on the Number floor. The bellman greeted her with a Adjective hello, and loaded her items on the car

As Sally and the bellman to the door, they noticed a woman wearing a large hat and carrying a lurking in the shadows. They Verb Past Tense to the door and entered the building.
That night Sally emailed her co-workers at the SHSA:
"Hello my colleagues! Today I witnessed many hazards in my hotel parking garage. It got me thinking - what sort of things can we do to keep ourselves safe in that environment? Please let me know your thoughts!
Yours, Sally"
