Camp Centerland

1. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____

Camp Centerland

I remember that [adjective] day at Camp Centerland. The weather was [adjective] while the [animal]s were [Verb Present ends in ING ending in -ing] in the woods by the flagpole. It was the first time that I saw a group of [group name ex: Atid, Negev]s [verb] at [activity ex: Archery]. The look on their counselor's face was [adjective].

[Pronoun] said to me,"If only [name] was here to see this," while taking [number] steps back.

A crowd of [number] started gathering to see the [adjective] sight. I even saw [name] join the group as they began to [verb] and [verb].

Then, all of a sudden a [adjective] hungry [animal] came [verb ending in -ing] out into the open with a campers' [noun] on its [body part]. It must have followed the trail of [food] that fell from the holes of [clothing].

But that's not it. The hungry animal started doing the activity with the group of [number] campers. This wasn't Pretzellogic so I decided to do what I knew best. I joined the [adjective] activity and ended up having a [adjective] time with [name] and the rest of the folks.
