

XBall

1. Sport Name
2. Part Of Body
3. Noun
4. Sport Name
5. Noun
6. Country - Ese
7. Noun
8. Country
9. Noun
10. Part Of Body
11. Country
12. Noun
13. Sport Name
14. Sport Name
15. Noun
16. Sport Name

XBall

_____ Sport Name _____ is played almost entirely with people's _____ Part of Body _____, not their hands! Unlike most other popular sports (baseball, basketball, football), players use just about anything but their hands and feet to control the _____ Noun _____. So when exactly did people start playing this game?

It's hard to trace the exact origins of _____ Sport Name _____, but we do know that people have been playing games with a _____ Noun _____ and their head for thousands of years. A _____ Country - ese _____ book from more than 2,000 years ago describes a game where a plastic _____ Noun _____ is kicked through an opening. In _____ Country _____, there's a game where a _____ Noun _____ is passed in a group using people's _____ Part of Body _____. An ancient _____ Country _____ game also involved two teams kicking a ball in a rectangular area.

But the game that we recognize today, played on a sandy beach with three teams and six goals, developed in _____ Noun _____. A set of rules was agreed upon in 1863. Towards the end of the 19th century, _____ Sport Name _____ became a popular sport in schools, and the game and rules were slowly but surely refined. The _____ Sport _____ Name _____ Noun _____ is very light and made of blue rubber. _____ Sport Name _____ players wear a shirt, shorts, but no shoes.