Hobbits in Christchurch

In a hole in the ground there lived a Hobbit, named Elizabeth. She came to the beautiful land of _____Adjective_____ _____Location_____ about a year and half ago. She was called to _____Adjective_____ quest in the land of farther that the _____Noun_____ can see to save the helpless race of _____Noun Plural_____ . Now this quest was a _____Adjective_____ one. A quest full of _____Adverb_____ _____Verb Present ends in ING_____, _____Adverb_____ _____Adverb_____ _____Verb Present ends in ING_____, and _____Adverb_____ _____Verb Present ends in ING_____. The magnitude of this _____Adjective_____ quest is one which she would need help. There in the land of _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ met a few Hobbits on the way and their names were: Jarred, Elizabeth, Emma, Josh and Kris, there were many more who joined in on this story but that is for another story.

Her story began just when she arrived from the flying _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____. She arrived, breathed in the _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ air, and said _____Exclamation_____ _____Exclamation_____! Before she started her quest she received _____Adjective_____ of wisdom from fellow Hobbits that _____Verb Base Form_____ in the land, but had now been _____Verb Past Tense_____ back home shortly after her arrival. They _____Verb Past Tense_____ an hour to a place called _____Noun_____ where they ate _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Food_____ and the worlds best _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Color_____ _____Food_____. Elizabeth had been given a _____Adjective_____ gift from God above. This magical gift had the power to bring anyone from _____Noun_____ to _____Noun_____. It reminds me of another story of a girl, named Lucy, who could heal any wound with her Cordial. Her quest was simple: Share the gift with all of the _____Noun Plural_____, _____Noun Plural_____, and the _____Noun Plural_____ in the land of _____Noun_____.

this Hobbit was able to go and met people in the land, she decided to escape the cold and go into a warm land. A land which would make any dwarf shave his _____Part of Body_____ to stay warm. Little do dwarfs know, if they shave their _____Part of Body_____ they will look like an _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ elf that is just learning how to _____Verb Base Form_____ his _____Noun_____. This Hobbit joined in fellow Hobbits in a foreign land that have received the same gift and quest as she had. Little do humans know, that when Hobbits get together a _____Noun_____ happens. Hobbits are an _____Adjective_____ people. _____Adjective_____ in their own relations to one another. This _____Noun Plural_____ was centered around doing _____Verb Base Form_____ with people that would always uplift each other with words of _____Adjective_____ and _____Adjective_____. Maybe with some crude _____Noun_____. But needless to say, Elizabeth was _____Adjective_____ to go back to her hole in the ground in Christchurch. Did I mention this hole possessed its very own _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____. Now this _____Adjective_____ _____Animal_____, was small and furry. He almost seemed grumpy like a dwarf. At first glance you get this feeling deep in your heart that you are going to be eaten alive _____Noun_____ by _____Noun_____. His fur had this _____Adjective_____ _____Color_____ that was unseen in all the land. His eyes as _____Adjective_____ as a _____Animal_____. His face as flat as a _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____. Think of an _____Adjective_____ orc mixed with a confused _____Adjective_____ _____Animal_____ with the _____Adjective_____ of an Balrog and the an _____Adjective_____ _____Color_____ Nazguls from the south. Here Elizabeth was safe to rest.

If I can spend some time in this story to take a tangent into a joyful time of Elizabeth's time here. Now in the _____Adjective_____ dark _____Color_____ winter she came to know a dwarf, named _____First Name of a Person_____. Now this young dwarf had grown up among other Hobbits and something believed that she was a hobbit herself. But when you put this dwarf next to a Hobbit, something did not look right. This dwarf was still hardened unlike the joyful Hobbits. She was unable to see deep within her heart. This dwarf was still desiring the _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ of the _____Adjective_____ mines from the Northern Hills. To be a Hobbit Elizabeth said, is "not to look like a hobbit, but to _____Verb Base Form_____ like a hobbit. Hobbits _____Verb Base Form_____ something is life that fills them with a _____Verb Base Form_____ unlike any _____Noun_____ or _____Noun_____." This dwarf was _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ when she realized, even though she had _____Verb Past Tense_____ with Hobbits, done the Sunday _____Noun_____ with Hobbits, she had _____Verb Past Tense_____ the whole point. Elizabeth was with other fellow Hobbits when they _____Verb Past Tense_____ the gift they possessed and this _____Verb Base Form_____ the _____Adjective_____ and _____Adjective_____ dwarfs heart. Impacted deeply she saw how worthly all of the _____Noun_____, _____Noun_____, and _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ she seeked after. Over time this dwarf sat under a Hobbit, which isn't hard being that dwarfs already were shorter than Hobbits. But this dwarf now as I right this tale, reflect the very _____Adjective_____ of a Hobbit. _____Verb Present ends in ING_____"" fast to the gift _____Adjective_____ has changed her from within. The Hobbits no longer refer to her by her dwarven named, _____First Name of a Person_____, above but now given her the name: Rebecca. All because of this one Hobbit's faithfulness to share the _____Adjective_____ gift she was given by another

Now it was a hot summer. Some say it was the _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ summer that the world has ever known. Your socks were _____Verb Base Form_____, your _____Food_____ was _____Verb Past Tense_____, His palms are _____Verb Base Form_____, knees _____Verb Base Form_____, arms are _____Verb Base Form_____. There's vomit on his _____Noun_____ already, mom's _____Noun_____. All the Hobbits on the quest traveled down to Queenstown, a place of _____Adjective_____ beauty and _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ food prices. Here they would be join by many people across the land to grow in their understand of this gift. They would learn how too _____Verb Base Form_____ the gift. They would learn why they should _____Verb Base Form_____ and _____Verb Base Form_____ this gift to others. There were many stories to told around the fire of this time, but we shall leave it with 1. It was a _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ night. The people across the land were in a _____Adjective_____ slumber that could not wake the smallest of _____Noun Plural_____. The Hobbits were hungry. A hunger that made them _____Verb Base Form_____ and _____Verb Base Form_____ and _____Verb Base Form_____ their tummys and say _____Exclamation_____ _____Exclamation_____ ! ? Have I not _____Verb Past Tense_____ you? But needless to say the Hobbits were hungry. Inside the house they were staying at, the Hobbits had to manuever down this very _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ to get to the _____Color_____ carriage. It was an intimidating task. Some say the best of the _____Noun Plural_____ could not achieve such a task. Silence was the Goal. Silence did not happen. The Hobbits did not care because they could only think of one thing: _____Food_____. But is was okay because the people were in a deep slumber dream of _____Noun_____. Inside the _____Color_____ carriage they listen to an _____Year_____ hymm song of the motherland from Lil Jon. And as this music played the Hobbits were full of _____Verb Base Form_____. _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ in the carriage verb loudly that the most _____Adjective_____ of ears could hear them. Alas they arrived at the mystical land of _____Adjective_____ arches. They wasted no time _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ _____Food_____ and _____Food_____. They _____Verb Past Tense_____ and _____Verb Past Tense_____ like never before. Such bonding to strengthen the Hobbits to continue on their quest. Free for a night during a long _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ summer.

As

the seasons change from _____Adjective_____ summer to _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ winter, Elizabeth met a few dwarfs on the way. These dwarfs reigned from the line of royalty from the Great King Augustus Gloop. These dwarfs enjoyed to eat. Their favorite foods were _____Food_____ topped with this _____color_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Food_____ that was _____Verb Base Form_____ in _____Food_____. Because they were dwarfs, they rejoiced in a feast. Food was the _____Verb Past Tense_____ to their _____Noun_____. It is great to see how God used this Hobbit to build ties to the distance dwarfs from the line of Augustus Gloop. . Now these dwarfs did not understand the magical gift Elizabeth possessed. But in this story she is leaving before she knows what affect her life will have on the hearts of these _____Adjective_____ dwarfs.

O' how this Hobbit was faithful to the quest that God has given her. Many people have heard and received the magic gift that brought people from _____Noun_____ to _____Noun_____. The Hobbits, dwarfs, elves, and even the trolls, she is leaving behind have change immensely. Needless to say this Hobbit has changed this land for better. There has not been a finer Hobbit walk in the land of _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____. And now she returns back to a new _____Noun_____. Full of new _____Noun_____ and familiar _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____. Her story in Christchurch ends soon, but this Hobbit's next story will be greater than all.

And this was the story of the one Hobbit from a hole in the ground.
