Paul the racist

There once lived an Adjective Adjective white man named paul, he didnt like the blacks ever since he was born. Not only did he not like them, he was a devout member of the edl and would often spent his spare time ______ Verb Present ends in ING ______ black people at the stake in his back _______. Every black person he say, he would crack out his Noun and Adverb Verb Base Form it upon them while screaming "YOU ARE A ________. Adjective ______". Paul lived in liverpool and supported everton. On occasion he would make conversation with a black man, only to find out where he lived so he can petrol bomb there house. Was there a reason he hated black people, no. He just thought that they were better off used as ________ Plural then humans. The racist Adjective Adjective would snort at black people and call them names like Adjective, Adjective and Adjective. He went on holiday to Location, and while sat on the moterway, a young black child put his Part of Body through the window and asked for some noun. What did paul do, ________ verb Base Form ______ at him and wind the window up on his _______ Part of Body
