Tent Revival Recap

I just returned from my first ever tent revival meeting and boy I must say, The Lord truly _____ Verb Present ends _____ in S _____ in _____ Adjective _____ ways. I was _____ Adjective ENDS IN ED _____ by the _____ Adjective _____ presentation. We the audience were captivated by the _____ Adjective _____ Evangelist; Pastor _____ Name of First Pet _____ Name of _____ street _____, who delivered a rousing sermon taken from a quote found in the Gospel of _____ Name of Person _____. "

_____ Adjective _____ Father, your _____ Noun _____ revives me; you _____ Verb Base Form _____ me in all my troubles."

After his inspiring message, Pastor _____ Name of street _____ _____ Verb Past Tense _____ off the stage and _____ Verb _____ Past Tense _____ among the audience inviting those in need of healing to _____ Verb Base Form _____ forward. This was the most memorable part of the show, which began with a/an _____ Adjective _____ old man bound to a wheelchair his whole life. The audience quietly watched Pastor _____ Name of street _____ who looked at the old man and _____ Verb Past Tense _____, there was nothing but compassion in the Pastors eyes and then he laid hands on the old mans _____ Part of Body _____ and said the Lord has healed you. Before my eyes, I watched as the paralyzed man started _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____ and the audience erupted in cheers and songs of celebration. This man was once paralyzed and now could _____ Present tense of last verb _____. It was a true miracle and that was just the beginning, the Pastor touched the _____ Part of Body _____ of a blind woman who said she could _____ Verb Base Form _____ for the first time. I saw a mute man start _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____ for the first time and there were other such stories throughout the evening. The whole event ended on a musical note as Pastor _____ Name of Street _____ lead us all in a few of our favorite worship songs such as _____ Adjective _____ are you Lord, For whom shall I _____ Verb Base _____ Form _____ and my personal favorite, _____ Adjective _____ is the Lord. Truly, it was a magical evening.
